PRAYER CHANGES THINGS Prayer is not only talking to God but even more; it is listening to him.

Please pray for Agnes Pesta, Ruth Shawver, Helen Kugel, Lois Stringer, Jean Shepherd, Marilyn Glasgow, Don Fowls, Kay Robinson, Mary Veith, Ruth Maxson, and Jenit Vance.

FLOWERS in the sanctuary this morning are give by Elaine Goetz in memory of Matthew Simpson and by Josh & Mark Robertson in memory of Violet Robertson.

WELCOME to our newest staff member and Director of Youth Ministries, Joseph Mangano. Joseph and his wife, Emily were married on July 25, 2015. While growing up with his three siblings, Joseph states they had two excellent examples of what a Christian worldview looked like as his dad is a professor of Hebrew Bible and mom is a Marriage and Family Counselor. However, it was not until high school that he realized that his faith had not penetrated his mind and moved to his heart. Youth ministers, Todd Henry and Don Kauffman were key persons who help place Joseph on a new path of self-discovery and discovering God as more than a collection of information. Joseph says he has since developed a relationship between spiritual formation and the continued education of the social sciences with the desired outcome that the more someone studies the world around him/her the closer they will be to God and their neighbor. When Joseph is done with his formal education he will have earned a Bachelors, a Masters, and a Masters of Education. With every class and degree, Joseph says he feels closer to God as he continues to learn more about God's creation and his people.
